Job Description: We are seeking motivated and enthusiastic students aged 14-18 to participate in our FILM Summer Program. FILM stands for Financial Literacy, Investments, Leadership, and Marketing. This program aims to provide participants with valuable skills and knowledge in these areas, preparing them for success in life. As a participant in the program, you will have the opportunity to learn about social media responsibility, digital marketing strategies, financial literacy, and leadership skills. You will also have the chance to apply your knowledge by creating and implementing marketing campaigns and organizing events.

Responsibilities:

- Participate in interactive workshops and training sessions focused on financial literacy, investments, leadership, and marketing.
- Learn social media management and responsible digital marketing practices.
- Collaborate with peers to develop and implement marketing strategies.
- Assist in planning and organizing a Teen Summit event and a Back-to-School Drive event.

Qualifications:

- Age 14-18
- Interest in marketing, financial literacy, investments, leadership, or related fields.
- Strong communication skills and the ability to work effectively in a team.

Duration: The FILM Summer Program will be a 3-month project, taking place in June, July, and August. Sessions will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays for 4 hours a day.

Compensation: Participants will be compensated for their involvement in the FILM Summer Program.

How to Apply: Interested students can apply by sending a brief statement of interest to Lauren Inman at programs@exceedsexpectations.org. Please include "FILM Summer Program Application" in the subject line of the email.

Application Deadline: Applications must be submitted by Friday, June 16.

Join us for the FILM Summer Program and gain valuable skills in financial literacy, investments, leadership, and marketing. This is a unique opportunity to make a positive impact, develop your abilities, and connect with like-minded peers. Apply now and embark on a journey towards a successful future!
